Bubble Show..

Rumors were heard throughout Day Hab. Is it really true?! On Monday, we had an exciting bubble show happening. The participants trooped next door with grins on their faces. We were greeted by flashing lights and music. We took our seats and watched the magic unfold! Mariana, the instructor, waved a round stick with a soapy bubble around it. Jonathan watched in fascination as the bubble swayed, without bursting. The next feature started with a “pop”. We stood in a circular base as Mariana created a bubble surrounding us. The participants took turns being spotlighted in the front of the room. Lila loved the sensation of being immersed in the bubble. The smiles and laughter were contagious. All too soon, the show came to a close. Bracha commented, “I enjoyed being inside the bubble and had a great time”. We all know that the participants’ “bubbly” personalities are what make Otsar Day Hab the place to be!!

Trip to 18th Avenue Park..

The sun was shining bright on Wednesday morning, matching our sunny moods. A fantastic trip was planned to the 18th Avenue Park! We loaded the buses as fast as we could, eager to get there early. The park was filled with children laughing as they played. Our groups strolled on the pathway with the beautiful flowers and trees in the backdrop. Zisha had a serene look on his face, enjoying the soft breeze. Miriam was delighted to participate in an exercise routine. We returned to Day Hab with renewed appreciation for the magnificent world in which we live. Stay tuned for an awesome trip coming up soon that will surely have you playing!

Birthdays of the Month..

Tuesday brought along a day filled with camaraderie and celebration. The participants clapped and sang for those born in August. Happy Birthday Yaakov! Anat made us a beautifully decorated sponge cake with whipped topping and sprinkles. Yaakov received a birthday balloon and colorful hat. The participants showered the celebrant with well wishes. We sang Siman Tov U'Mazel Tov out loud and in unison. In our main room, we have a sparkling birthday bulletin board with the pictures of those celebrating each month. These birthday parties are one of the many activities the participants look forward to each day!!
